

Who Then Shall We Be?

A Contemplative Prayer for the World

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 2024

We pause to reflect and commit.

May we continue the journey

How does my lament invite something new?

Who needs an invitation of inclusion at my table?

Where might the tree of life be inviting me?

What commitment can I make to deepen the work of transformation and healing?

What happens now to this commitment I make?
