LCWR IMAGINING JUSTICE

A gathering for leaders in the ministry of justice to imagine new ways of doing justice together

The Beautiful Not Yet: Hope, Hard Times and Faithfulness

*“Hope is holding in creative tension, everything that is,
with all that could and should be, and each day taking action to lessen the distance between the two.”*

Parker J. Palmer

Facilitator: Carrie Newcomer

Musician - Poet - Educator

April 20 - 23, 2020

Bon Secours Retreat and Conference Center Marriottsville, Maryland

*We will begin on Monday (April 20) with the evening meal and conclude Wednesday (April 22)
after the evening meal reserving Thursday as a travel day.*

Program description:

The retreat/workshop, led by award winning songwriter and performing artist, educator and activist Carrie Newcomer, will explore our ability to envision and maintain hope during times of individual and community challenge. Carrie will use music, poetry, reflective writing, and small and large group conversation to explore the personal stories and practices that keep us resilient and help us to stay centered in daily, faithful, life-giving action. Participants will explore the things that have helped them maintain hope and find meaning in the beautiful not yet, as well as the hope maintained through the power of the gathered community.

Cost: $515 includes accommodations, meals, and program.

Registration due by: March 23, 2020

Cancellations received prior to March 23, 2020 will receive a $300 refund

No refunds can be made after that date..
