Join with other women religious leaders for a five-day retreat that will provide opportunities to reflect on the blessings and challenges of religious life leadership today.

The days will include input, quiet contemplative space, a variety of ritual experiences and some opportunity for group sharing and individual spiritual direction for those who choose.

Retreat Facilitators

Marie McCarthy, SP served on the leadership team of her congregation, the Sisters of Providence of St. Mary-of-the-Woods, IN for 15 years, during which time she was a member of the LCWR board. She has served as a professor of pastoral theology and a clinical therapist, and is now the LCWR associate director of programs.

Janet Mock, CSJ served as the executive director of LCWR and the Religious Formation Conference. She was also the leader of her congregation, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Baden, Pennsylvania, for 10 years and its director of formation and later director of novices for 10 years. She has extensive experience as a retreat leader, presenter and facilitator, working with many religious congregations throughout the country.

Participation in the retreat is limited to the first 30 LCWR members or associate members who are serving in congregation leadership who register.

Cost of the retreat: $780.00
