

It is time to put our energy into the greater realities of our Gospel lives:

freeing ourselves,

opening doors,

enlarging the table,

being present to ecclesial and societal needs, and developing bonds of solidarity with immigrant communities and sisters around the world.