This video is part of the LCWR national initiative: “Discerning Our Emerging Future.” It features a roundtable weaving the threads of hope, energy and desire among persons discerning religious life for today and into the future. We’ll hear what is being seen and experienced at this time of deep change by Debbie Borneman, SSCM from the National Religious Vocation Conference (NRVC), Ellen Dauwer, SC from the Religious Formation Conference (RFC), and Erin McDonald, CSJ and Katy Press, ASCJ from Giving Voice (GV). Each brings her unique perspective to our ongoing search for pathways into “the life” and invites us to engage thinking in new ways about our emerging future.
