

Update

A Publication of the Leadership Conference of Women Religious

May 2014

2014 LCWR Assembly

Nashville, Tennessee --- August 12 — 16, 2014

Holy Mystery Revealed in our Midst

Conscious of the great hunger among women religious to be grounded in faith and ever attentive to the movement of God, the 2014 LCWR assembly will create a space for members to discern together where God is leading women's religious life. Set in a context of contemplation, and drawing upon the beauty of the arts, LCWR members will be led through a process to more deeply explore how Holy Mystery is being revealed in the midst of the concrete realities of US religious life as LCWR and its members plan for their future.

LCWR has called forth one of its own members, Nancy Schreck, OSF, to lead the assembly in reflection on how Holy Mystery is being revealed through the essential considerations facing religious life and religious life leaders at this time. Nancy will assist the participants in a discernment of God's presence and call. What is the invitation from Holy Mystery for religious life for these times?

Among the highlights of the assembly will be a conversation among three LCWR members on how they experience Holy Mystery revealed in their midst through the realities challenging their institutes. The conversation will provide a "template" for the members to take home so that they can create spaces in their own congregations for the revelation of Holy Mystery.

Nancy Conway, CSJ

Margaret Ormond, OP

Ana Lydia Sonera
Matos, CDP

Assembly information and registration materials are available on the Members section of the LCWR website.

Members and associates must use their individualized username and password to access this area. (www.lcwr.org)

LCWR to Honor Elizabeth Johnson, CSJ with its 2014 Outstanding Leadership Award

Theologian Elizabeth A. Johnson, CSJ will accept the 2014 LCWR Outstanding Leadership Award. This prestigious award honors a person whom the LCWR members wish to recognize and thank for modeling extraordinary leadership.

Elizabeth, a Sister of St. Joseph of Brentwood, New York, serves as a professor of theology at Fordham University. She has a long history of distinguished

(continued on page 3)

